The KEY 1938

PUBLISHED BY THE
BOWLING GREEN
STATE UNIVERSITY
BOWLING GREEN, OHIO

Preamble

WE, the Key Ring of Bowling Green State University, in order to form a more lasting picture of personalities and events, compensate for achievements, and promote school tradition, do publish and submit this KEY to the students and faculty of our beloved Alma Mater.

Dedication

IN acknowledgement of his profound concern with the youth of our institution as well as its material growth and change in status, and in gratitude for his long and untiring service as a trustee, we, the class of 1938, dedicate this, our annual, to the perpetuation of the memory of Mr. Daniel C. Brown.

FEATURES

ADMINISTRATION

P R E S I D E N T ' S M E S S A G E

T HIS volume reveals the fact that the staff of the KEY has gone forth enthusiastically and skillfully and has unlocked and locked the happenings of the University year 1937-38. The manner of their work is such that it makes the events of the year conveniently available to us both now and in the future when they will be treasured even more highly than now. This history has its humorous side. It pictures us at play and at work and shows clearly the opportunities for service that are ours. Our new facilities are featured and appraised and our projected undertakings awaited in a most appreciative way. The year on the campus has been, we trust, profitable and happy. In the world at large it has been peculiar and dangerous. We have been given opportunities and opportunities should naturally carry responsibilities. May it be that our work here will prepare us to assume not less than our share of such responsibilities. The KEY Staff is to be congratulated on its work.

H. B. WILLIAMS

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S father wrote his son's name in a bed of earth and planted the furrows with cabbage seed. In due time, little George discovered his name growing in letters of green in the garden. He wondered about it and decided it was not accidental.

Bowling Green State University is not an accident. It is the result of the thought and effort of the public to lead on to higher social achievement. It is an expression of the interest of the public in young life and the faith of our people in education as a means of advancing our civilization. With the addition of this class, over five thousand have graduated thus far and more than twenty thousand have done a less amount of work in the institution. Significant as these numbers are, they are of small consequence when compared to the countless numbers that will flock here in the years to come.

I wish to extend sincere congratulations to the Class of 1938 and to indulge the hope that each of you may have a happy and useful career.

Sincerely yours,

H B Williams

Just another way of coming out on top! There are other ways too. Just compare the total scores and you will discover that the Falcons are just four touchdowns behind for the 1937 season. Then consider the fact that we encountered two teams which have always been rated in a higher stratum of football, and emerged with a reasonably close score. These factors constitute a successful season in any football league. Hats off to Captain Johnny Cheetwood and his fighting Falcons of 1937!

The colorful playing of our seniors, Captain Cheetwood, the lad with the John Barrymore profile, who played end; "Bob" Young, the guard who crawled from beneath a pile-up, calmly remarking, "Fellows, it's wonderful the amount of punishment the human body will stand. Let's try that one again!" and Dale Kuhlman and Harlan Kinney, backs, whose steady work and spirit have inspired Falcon teams during their three years of varsity play. All have left the imprint of their characters upon the campus life of our University.

For the 1938 Conference race, Coach Ockerman has nearly four complete teams of veterans, led by captain-elect Wayne Stewart, one of the triple-threat mainstays of last season. Good hunting, Falcons!

1937-38 BASKETBALL SEASON

Even the groundhogs came out of their burrows to bask in the heat of the pace set by the swooping Falcons in their race for the 1937-38 basketball pennant of Ohio. If ever an athletic team in the history of our University fully exemplified the significance of the term Falcon, that honor must be shared with this group led by Captain Harold Conrad. The Alumni and under-graduates extend a hearty hand of fellowship to each member of this splendid team.

The presence of James Zechman and Harold Bishop, All-State High School men, furnished a forward and guard around which Coach Landis built this championship combination. There were four Seniors on the squad. Captain Harold Conrad, Glen Smith, Dale Kuhlman, and Harlan Kinney. Their steadying influence on the fast-stepping sophomores was of incalculable importance on the season's record.

The sentiment of the co-captains-elect, Cordisco and Cooper, as to next season's prospects and may be summed up one phrase "1938-39 Conference Pennant". They will lead a big squad of veterans who really play the game of basketball. Look out, everybody!

1938 TRACK

With the 1938 track season barely under way, B.G. has scored two impressive victories. Albion College came, saw, and was conquered. Then Oberlin followed. The latter meet is especially gratifying, since it gave B. G. its first win over this powerful team.

Co-captains Harland Kinney and John Frontz, aided by Glen "Iron Man" Smith, Verlin Johnson, William Gernert, William Franks, and Clyde Kinney will take care of the dashes, hurdles, and quarter-mile.

Smith, Belding, Madaras, and Klenner are outstanding in the field events; while Foster and Bushong aid this group in the jumps.

The distance men are led by such veterans as James Glover, George Rozelle, Klor Heffner, Cal Kellogg, John DeHaven, Al Siekeres, and Robert Ringer.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

"A team for every girl, and every girl on a team" is the slogan of the Women's Athletics Association. A program of intramural activities is carried on throughout the year, by the executive board and active W.A.A. members, for all women in school. Everyone is eligible to play on a team, but awards are given only to members and are determined by a point system based on participation rather than skill.

The picnic for freshmen women during the first week in school marks the opening of an extensive and varied sport program. The fall sport season offers hockey and soccer as the major team games; archery, hiking, bicycling, bowling, ping-pong, paddle tennis, shuffleboard, tennis and badminton are also offered. Each season is closed by a sport supper at which awards are presented and new members formally taken into the Association.

Basketball is the chief interest during the winter season and this year about eighty girls participated. Individual sports continue through the winter and spring season. In the spring baseball becomes the popular sport and there are usually about six teams. Tennis and volley ball gain much attention during this season.

W.A.A. sponsors many activities outside of the intramural program, among them: candy sales at football games, alumni hockey game at homecoming, playday with the girls from Toledo University, and entertainment (this year a carnival), and the Wakan Campfire Service—W.A.A.'s farewell to her graduates.

Dear Mr. Cook:

Enclosed you will find the pictures of the girls, together with photographs of the board of judges. The photographs of the girls are numbered in the order of their selection.

By the time the pictures had arrived here, Mr. Gensler was not here and Mr. Walsh was ill. However, we were able to secure for you the following board of judges: Russell Patterson, internationally famous artist, who is now a production executive at Paramount; LeRoy Prinz, Paramount's dance director; and a famous authority on feminine beauty; and George Burns, Gracie Allen and Betty Grable, stars of the picture "College Swing."

Cordially yours,

Terry DeLapp

BUREAU OF ALUMNI RELATIONS

DR. H. B. WILLIAMS, Director
BESSIE STALLBOHM, Secretary

Bowling Green has an army of over five thousand alumni scattered all over the world. Heretofore the University did not have the personnel and funds necessary to follow-up its graduates systematically. Now that conditions are more favorable, it is proposed to undertake to assemble the records of our alumni since their graduation. The plan also involves the collection of later information at reasonably frequent intervals in order to keep the records up-to-date.

BUREAU OF ALUMNI RELATIONS

The University has recently established a bureau with a director in charge for the purpose of maintaining closer relations with the alumni and former students. The problem is being approached from the standpoint of the obligation of the University rather than that of the obligation of the graduates to the University. Graduates have an obligation, no one will attempt to gainsay, but there is no better way to arouse a sense of such obligation, than for the University to set the example by doing its part.

HOW GRADUATES CAN CO-OPERATE

It is a gigantic undertaking to assemble and organize this material, but the fact that most of the graduates are still under middle age will simplify the problem. After a careful study of the best practice throughout the country, a questionnaire has been prepared which is being sent to all graduates who can be reached. Any graduate who fails for any reason to receive a copy is urged to apply to the Bureau for one. The alumni can also be of great assistance to the Bureau in supplying the addresses of classmates who can not be reached at the addresses given at the time of their graduation.

USE OF MATERIAL

The data obtained from replies to the questionnaire will be arranged by the Bureau geographically, by classes, and by courses into over a hundred groupings. A modern filing system will make this information available at a moment's notice. There is no intention to trespass on the province of any clubs or alumni organizations already in existence. An important function of the Bureau will be to encourage the formation of such societies and to co-operate with them in every way.

ADVANTAGES TO GRADUATES

The value of the Bureau is self-evident. To the University, it will be a clearing house for information about its graduates. To the graduates themselves, it will be a source of information about classmates and present college activities. As the movement develops, the publication of an alumni magazine will be a natural result. The Bureau hopes to be of service to many in securing better positions and professional promotions. It believes that alumni will readily see the advantages of having complete records of their activities since leaving Bowling Green on file at the University. If through this movement, the Bureau can bring to pass a finer spirit of loyalty and devotion to the institution, it will be a significant achievement. To this end, it pledges its best efforts and bespeaks the cordial support of all the friends of the University.

The Alumni Office is centrally located and graduates are urged to make use of it as a place to secure information and meet their friends. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested to call at the Bureau Office and see a demonstration of the system that has been installed.

The American Way of Living

We have the highest standard of living in the world. But we have not attained it by divine right. Instead we have earned it by our efforts. Down through the years our people have practiced thrift. They have been resourceful, courageous, far sighted. They have worked hard. And our country has forged steadily ahead.

This bank believes that so long as these basic American principles endure, and as long as business men, banks, the people and the government work hand in hand, we will go forward.

Our financial services can be very helpful to those who wish to move ahead.

In Appreciation

A distinctive privilege and extreme pleasure have been ours in having had the production of this book. We gave more than craftsmanship of printing, and the fulfillment of a contract. A deeper regard guided us . . . We became as a fellow part of the school and the student body, entering into the spirit of the book's purpose and its contents and so lending our inspired loyalty to its every detail of issuance. And in that degree of appreciation, and to your school, we wish continued success. The Defiance Printing and Engraving Company, Defiance, Ohio.
